STATEMENT OF CALL

“I was reared in a Southern Baptist Convention Church. I consider Harrods Creek Baptist Church to be my home church. Despite being churched most of my life, I truly did not come to know Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior until I was fifteen. Shortly after my conversion, I felt God calling me to the ministry. Despite God’s calling over my life, life took me down some different paths, as a result God’s calling to the pastorate in my life took nearly fifteen years to become a reality. I had many ups and downs along the way, but God never gave up on me! It was over those years that God developed, trained and equipped me to be a pastor...even through my many mistakes. As I look back at my calling I can see the evidence of God’s influence and plan throughout my life, and I believe God’s calling over my life has been a continuous surrendering and learning process. I also believe with all of my heart that my life experiences in the ministry and military have equipped me to be an effective pastor. I know where I have come from and where God wants to take me and it is by God’s grace alone that I have received this calling. Therefore, I serve as a pastor today for His glory alone! Broadman has been the highlight of my calling. The Lord has truly blessed me, my family and His Church. I look forward to God’s continuation of His calling in my life and through my pastorate. May God be glorified.” — Pastor Chris McCombs

PHILOSOPHY OF MINISTRY

“The church is built upon the Rock and that Rock is Jesus Christ. It is essential that every ministry be grounded upon the Rock, for Jesus Christ is the chief cornerstone. The church is not a building, nor is it about programs. The Church is God’s chosen people who are called to glorify Him as we carry out his purposes here on earth. We are called to serve Him and one another in ministry. Every believer is a minister and every minister has a ministry. Therefore, we are to function as a body by being partners in the ministry with Jesus Christ and one another. (Ephesians 4:11-16, Matthew 28:18-20, and Acts 6:1-7)

“I believe that Broadman Baptist Church is A Church that Makes a Difference because God has allowed us to adopt a biblical philosophy of ministry and put it into practice. Praise the Lord!” — Pastor Chris McCombs
